

DIXON MENTOR WORRIED OVER TEAM CHANCES

Lindell Fears Rochelle May Come Up With an Upset

BY ROBBIN

Saturday afternoon at 1 sharp Dixon and Rochelle high schools will play in the championship games for the North Central Conference. If Dixon wins in tomorrow's contest, they will be undisputed holders of first place honors. Rochelle has won only one conference game so far this season and if she wins this one, Dixon will automatically be thrown from the top spot, which will go to Sterling providing that Sterling wins in her contest. With Belvidere, DeKalb and Mendota will battle for third and fourth place at Mendota.

Conference Standings

Team	Won	Lost	Tied	Points
Dixon	3	0	1	1000
Sterling	1	0	3	1000
DeKalb	2	1	1	667
Mendota	2	1	1	667
Rochelle	1	2	1	333
Belvidere	0	3	1	000

With the chances of a double championship running high in their favor, the Dixon squad and student body are eagerly awaiting the arrival of Saturday, to either play or see the game of games in their opinions, and the contest that will decide the conference.

Fear Overconfidence
Dixon is the favorite for Saturday's clash, but there has been bigger upsets in football history than the Rochelle and Dixon encounter of tomorrow. Look what Notre Dame did to the highly touted Army eleven of last year, or what little Columbia did to Stanford, the coast's most powerful eleven, in last season's Rose Bowl game. Dixon's squad may be overconfident. In the regular lineup, the players that are doubtful are Lindell's best men, and strangely enough, the men who assume the Tarzan atmosphere have proven to be one of the team's weaknesses in past games. Rochelle runs her team on the Notre Dame shift. Dixon's second and third strings have been going through a few of these plays and after a few hours of practice the third stringers lined up against the regulars last Wednesday. With the ball on the 50 yard line and in their possession, the third team executed one of the famous Notre Dame shifts and sneakers. "Fearless Phil" Watts took the ball on a play that completely dazed the regulars and ran around the left end for 50 yards and touchdown. On the next play, "Monk" Ware went over the top for the extra point from another Notre Dame shift. In two plays the humble third stringers scored seven points on the much praised conference leaders.

Plays Gain Again
On Thursday night's scrimmage, the third string backfield and the light weight line again marched through the heavies. "Monk" Ware scored a touchdown from approximately the 25 yard line on that same old Notre Dame shift which seemingly baffled the heavies. It is true that the regulars scored points on these teams also, but will they be able to score on Rochelle? And will Rochelle be able to walk all over them as the second and third teams have done all week? Rochelle has a strong line and heavy backs; they are all big and charge fast. One of the best passing attacks in the conference has this Rochelle outfit. Earl Harms doing the passing, and his brother Jimmy receiving. Sterling beat Rochelle on breaks and got by smart football. Their first touchdown over Rochelle came from a bad pass from center on fourth down. With a point lead Sterling team was able to keep a fighting spirit while Rochelle was naturally down in the dumps. This Rochelle half back, Earl Harms, is a junior and played all of the Sterling game. He is his team's backbone and brains. Besides scoring the only touchdown over Sterling he called signals, kicks, and passed, and he can readily toss that old pigskin with deadly accuracy. He always has a clear head and keeps his pulse until one of the receivers is in the clear.

Is Homecoming
This game is Rochelle's homecoming and they are bound to give the Dixon eleven one of the hardest fights that has been dished out by any team this season. Rochelle has averaged as much yardage on their plays as any team in the conference but they have been the victims of circumstances and bad breaks. If luck should happen to fall their way tomorrow they might cause one of the biggest upsets in the North Central circuit.

On the other side Dixon has some good points as well as bad ones. The squad has trained hard all week and executed their plays perfectly. The same powerful lineup will start tomorrow's contest. Whether they will come out on top or not is hard to determine. But if they do not show some improvement on the Rochelle field, they will be more like "Moses in the Bull Rushes" than a football eleven.

CAR HIT BARRICADE

An automobile was driven into a barricade at the Illinois Central crossing on Brighton avenue at an early hour Wednesday morning and the car considerably damaged. The wind shield was shattered and the barricade broken down. Employees of the railroad were engaged in making repairs to the crossing and the driver apparently disregarded the warning lights on the barricade. Special agents of the railroad were in Dixon this morning conducting an investigation and reported that a part of a quart of liquor was found near the scene of the crash. No report of the accident.

WHOLE FAMILY WIPED OUT BY JEALOUS HEAD

Eastern Man Killed Wife, Infant Son, Daughter, Self

Stoneham, Mass., Nov. 9—(AP)—Somewhere in the brain of Joel E. Lidquist a smoldering fire burst into angry flame, caused him to strangle his wife, kill his infant son, his baby daughter, and himself.

Today the Lidquist family was no more and their apartment in the eaves of a rambling white house was silent. The father, 27, yesterday strangled his wife, Corinne, 26, with a belt; stabbed his 12-year-old infant and his two-year-old daughter, Syrenie Ellen, and then, before hanging himself, sat down to write macabre notes in blood.

A child, living in an apartment below the Lidquists, became concerned yesterday when he rapped on the Lidquist door and got no answer. She told her parents who in turn called the police.

Police Crashed Door
Police crashed in a door to find Lidquist hanging from a makeshift noose fastened to an electric light fixture. On a cot in the same room was Syrenie, knife wounds in her throat and heart. In an adjoining room the unnamed infant had received similar slashes.

Upstairs, Mrs. Lidquist, two days back from a maternity hospital, was found on the floor with a belt tied about her throat. There was evidence of a struggle, her assailant having waylaid her as she fashioned toys in anticipation of Christmas.

Note in Jargon
On a table over her head, pinned with a knife that had been used to slay her children, was a note written in blood and couched in the jargon of a madman.

A postcard lay nearby. It said: "The life has been a great adventure. Just a dream. The death will be still another one. I killed the ones I loved but why let terrible sufferings live is filled with."

The card bore a red thumb print. Police said they were convinced Lidquist, becoming extremely jealous of his wife, had gone insane.

BIG TRANSPORT CROSSED NATION IN DOZEN HOURS

Rickenbacker's Plane Set New Record for Passenger Ships

Newark, N. J., Nov. 9—(AP)—Captain Eddie Rickenbacker's prophecy of a new transcontinental speed record for transport planes has come true.

After breakfasting in Los Angeles, the war ace with two copilot and three passengers flew into the Newark airport last night in his big twin-motored (Douglas) airliner, Florida Flyer, "all set for dinner in New York." His time was 12 hours, 3 minutes and 50 seconds.

They took off from the Union airport, Los Angeles, at 7:42 A. M. (CST) yesterday, and landed at 7:45:50 P. M., cutting 56 minutes and 10 seconds from Rickenbacker's old record.

One 12-Min. Stop
Flying over the Transcontinental Western Airlines course, with a 12-minute stop at Kansas City for refueling, the ship averaged 221 miles an hour. It maintained an average altitude of 14,000 feet.

"At one point over the Rockies we hit 17,000 feet," said Rickenbacker. "Then we had to use the oxygen tanks, but just for a few minutes. Our top speed was 237 miles an hour."

It was a "gesture," that former record flight February 19, when Rickenbacker set his transport plane down in Newark from Los Angeles in 13 hours and 2 minutes, just before the Army took over the business of flying the mail.

Yesterday's flight was made to show how speedily, yet safely, the trip may be made. On his previous flight, Rickenbacker, carried twelve aboard, and made three stops.

The record for speed planes is 10 hours, 2 minutes, held by Colonel Roscoe Turner.

SIR KINGSFORD SMITH PLANS A RECORD FLIGHT

From Los Angeles to Australia via New York and London

Los Angeles, Nov. 9—(AP)—A 17,000 mile flight from Los Angeles to Australia via London is the next goal of Sir Charles Kingsford-Smith, who recently completed the first Australia-to-United States flight.

"I would much prefer to make my way by boat in a leisurely manner," said Sir Charles today. "But I think plans have just about materialized for me to fly from Los Angeles to New York, from there to London and from London eastward to Australia."

The noted aviator made the announcement of his projected flight shortly after an attachment against his plane has been lifted. Thomas C. Patton, a promoter who in 1928 had undertaken to find financial backers for Kingsford-Smith in a flight to Honolulu from California, filed the attachment against the plane, contending the aviator owed him $1750 for "service."

Arrangements were made for an early trial of Patton's suit against Sir Charles. The departure of the aviator will depend upon the disposition of the suit.

Father of Former Dixon Newspaper Man Passed Away

Isaac Storm, of Shelbyville, father of Orville Storm, city editor of the Sterling Gazette, passed away at his home, shortly before midnight Tuesday. He was one of the oldest editors and publishers in Illinois and for years had edited and published the Shelbyville Democrat and was an esteemed and prominent citizen, taking an important part in all civic life.

Orville Storm was with his father when he passed away, having gone down to Shelbyville about ten days ago. The elder Mr. Storm has been in poor health since the death of his wife about two years ago.

The many friends of Orville Storm in both Dixon and Sterling regret to learn of his bereavement. The funeral took place this afternoon.

Moline Man, Made
Knight by Belgian
King in War, Dead
Moline, Ill.—(AP)—Louis Sonneville, 68, knighted in 1931 by King Albert of Belgium for food relief work during the World War, died of pneumonia. He came to Moline from Belgium in 1885, and was engaged in the furniture and commission businesses for many years.

Former Palmyra Man Now Associated With Outlaw of Olden Day—Jesse James

Wallace Eatinger is Sure Acquaintance Former Bandit

Wallace Eatinger, former Palmyra township farmer, and well known throughout this section, now a resident of Venice, Calif., is spending a few days visiting with friends in Dixon and Palmyra. He will go to Chicago Saturday on an important business trip before returning to his California home for the winter, where he says he is at present associated with Jesse James, once famous western outlaw, who he declares, recently established his identity at Ocean Park, Calif., which adjoins Venice and who is daily visited by hundreds of curious visitors and old acquaintances.

The former Palmyra county farmer and well driller is particularly interested in the discovery of Jesse James within the past few months, the identification having attracted nationwide publicity. Mr. Eatinger attended the court hearing last spring when James' identity was questioned and at present is assisting in conducting an investigation which is expected to remove any doubt as to the identity of the aged Ocean Park resident.

Richard Eatinger, who will be remembered by the older residents of Palmyra township, father of Wallace Eatinger, as a member of the Kansas Jay Hawks, spent several months in chasing the Quentros gang of which the James boys were members.

Eatinger's Comment
Commenting upon the allegedly mistaken identity of the once notorious western bank bandit, who is now a resident of Ocean Park, Calif., Mr. Eatinger today said:

"Away back in 1882, on April 3, there was a man shot that history tells us was Jesse James. But at that time there were plenty who doubted that it was Jesse James. Well, the fact is, Bob Ford shot a man by the name of Charles Bigelow, who betrayed the James boys, and who they plotted to put on the spot, which they did, and Bob Ford did shoot while his back was turned to him. The plot was entered into in order to get the reward, which was $10,000. But only $5,000 was paid to Bob Ford, and the remainder was held by Governor Cuttinton, who was Governor of Missouri at that time, to educate the children of Jesse James."

"After the shooting and funeral of Charles Bigelow, Jesse James, in disguise (the sermon was preached by a man by the name of Marston who is still living in Colorado) kissed his wife and children goodbye and mounted his horse and left for parts unknown."

With Indians Year
"He got with a band of Indians for a year or so in Montana, then afterwards went with a cattleman who was shipping two car loads of cattle to New York, where he stayed and got in with a man who was forming a theatrical troop. James furnished part of the money to start the troop. He was in this company for two years, then went west again. He settled in Canyon City, Colo., where he was in the cattle business for several years, all of this time going under the name of James Wilson."

"Two years ago after the charges of robbery were outlawed, he began to make himself known as Jesse W. James. He went to Excelsior Springs, Mo., and Kerner, Mo., and renewed acquaintances of former days and during his visit obtained 32 notarized affidavits of his identity."

Exhibited on Pier
"He is now being exhibited on the pier at Ocean Park, Cal., where he was arrested last spring by Santa Monica officers and taken off the pier and placed in the Santa Monica jail. He was kept there a few days and was taken back to St. Joseph, Mo., by his attorney and a party of additional proof, and returned to Santa Monica. When the trial was called it was immediately discharged by the judge in face of the amount of evidence of identification."

"James is now on the Ocean Park pier where he can be seen and interviewed by anyone so desiring, and where he will answer any questions concerning the robbery in which he and his brother Frank took part."

"I have been with James and his manager, S. A. Moyer for the last five months and have witnessed any number of people who have come to see him to make sure that he is the same Jesse James who was a bandit for 17 years. I could relate any amount of happenings which have occurred between Mr. James and people who have come to see him, but of which space will not allow."

Flip of a Coin
and Schuyler Co.
Goes Republican
Rushville, Ill., Nov. 9—(AP)—John P. Crandall made good use of the coin in winning the judgeship of Schuyler county.

Crandall, a Republican, doesn't deny—in fact, he boasts—that it was coin of the realm which got him his new job.

He and James A. Long, the Democratic candidate for county judge, polled the identical number of votes in Tuesday's balloting. Each received 3151.

This morning they met, by agreement, at the county clerk's office. A half dollar was produced by Justice of the Peace Pratt. The seconds of the two contestants examined it to make certain it had both heads and tails on it.

Then, with all dignity of his office, Justice Pratt flipped the coin. "Heads," yelled Long.

"Tails," yelled Crandall.

The coin came down, bounced on the table top and—"tails," it is, yelled Juste Pratt, casting as his judicial dignity for the moment.

Schuyler county had gone Republican.

"DEAD MAN" IS "RESTORED" AND LIVES 22 HOURS

Philadelphia General Hospital Reports on Experiment

Philadelphia, Nov. 9—(AP)—Physicians at Philadelphia General hospital say a man "dead" for 12 minutes was brought to life with two injections of adrenalin and lived for 22 hours.

Injections have restored life before, they said, but rarely if ever, so long after the patient's heart ceased beating. Neither have persons so treated held life for so long a time.

The man brought back to life was Lizzie Williams, 46, suffering from a brain swelling induced by a toxic condition, the hospital disclosed yesterday.

First "Shot" Failed
After a cathoscopic examination showed his heart had stopped beating, Dr. James Greenough injected 10 minims of adrenalin into Williams' heart.

The needle was allowed to remain for five minutes with no results. A second injection of 15 minims was made and two minutes later Williams' heart resumed beating. But not until five minutes later did he begin to breathe.

A careful watch was kept over the patient. He did not regain consciousness, although he moaned and moved his arms, hospital attaches said.

LATER RETURNS TRIM DEMOCRAT GAIN IN STATE

Republican is Shown Winner of Senate Race, Seventh

Chicago, Nov. 9—(AP)—Stragglers late today had cut the three-seat gain of Democrats in the Illinois state senate down to two but control of 35 of the 51 seats was still assured the majority party.

Arthur J. Bidwell, River Forest Republican, had apparent overcome an early lead of his opponent, Charles F. Baumrucker, also of River Forest, for the Seventh district senatorship. Returns from 321 of 232 precincts gave Bidwell 57,954 to 57,157 for Baumrucker.

The district includes suburban towns, a small section of which was formerly represented by the late Sen. Arthur A. Huebsch.

The two Democratic gains were registered in Chicago where Prof. T. V. Smith of the University of Chicago unseated the veteran Roy C. Woods in the Third district, and in the Rock Island-Moline district where Robert M. Harper defeated William C. Schroeder.

A net gain of four seats in the house remained unchanged for the Democrats who will count 84 representatives when the next general assembly convenes compared with 69 on the minority side.

Funeral of Amboy Musician is Held There Yesterday

(Telegraph Special Service)
Amboy, Nov. 9—Mrs. Stella Chabot, passed away Monday at the home of her mother, Mrs. Anna Klein, on East Main street. Her death terminated a long and severe illness. Mrs. Chabot has lived all her life in Amboy with the exception of a few years residence in Chicago. She was a talented musician being for many years an organist in the Methodist church and was known as an exceptionally accomplished accompanist. She was also a member of Arbuthus Chapter, O. E. S. and the Amboy Woman's Club.

She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Anna Klein; two sisters, Mrs. Augusta Finch and Mrs. Ruth Tait; and one brother, Henry Klein, Jr., all of Amboy. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Klein residence and burial was in Prairie Rest cemetery.

Stanford Fullback Found in State of Coma on Campus

Palo Alto, Calif., Nov. 9—(AP)—Discovered semi-conscious in his campus room after missing football practice three days, Charles G. Ledbetter, Stanford varsity fullback, was in the Palo Alto hospital under medical observation today.

Physicians said he was suffering from concussion of the brain. Two weeks ago Ledbetter was kicked in the head. For a time he complained of headaches but recovered and played against University of California at Los Angeles last Saturday, scoring a touchdown.

convinced is that the New Deal's monetary policy is mostly sound, while its other policies have largely been unsound."

The speaker assailed the AAA and the FWA, at the same time praising the accomplishments of the CCC, "with which I can find no fault."

Prof. Fisher said the "Civilian Conservation Corps in one and a half years has enrolled nearly one million young men. It was helped the conservation of our forests and it will bring rich economic dividends in the end."

Carrie Nations' Hatchet Hovers Over Kansas Bars

Arkansas City, Kas., Nov. 9—(AP)—Carrie Nations' hatchet hovered over saloon bars in Kansas today.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union of Arkansas City, in the part of the state where the militant Carrie began routing the bartenders 4 years ago, has pledged itself to swing the hatchet in an effort to keep the state dry in fact as well as in law.

"My fighting blood is up," said Mrs. May Frazee, president of the chapter after a special meeting. "I am ready to go in with my hatchet anywhere the law is being violated."

She emphasized what she said about using a hatchet.

"I mean a hatchet," she said, "and I am not speaking figuratively. Every woman promised today to take her hatchet and go with me if it becomes necessary."

State Voted Dry
The organization also voted to send a letter to President Roosevelt reminding him of "his promise to protect dry states."

Her efforts against the saloons and "blind tigers" in the 90's brought national fame to Mrs. Nations. Armed with a hatchet and stones she would descend on a saloon and begin to destroy the bar and liquid wares. Her work done she would shout:

"Glory to God; peace on earth, good will to men."

RECORD OF PAUL BERN'S END NOW BEING STUDIED

Los Angeles Jury is Now Studying Expenses of Prosecutor

Los Angeles, Nov. 9—(AP)—Records of the strange death of Paul Bern, film producer and second husband of Jean Harlow, were studied by the county grand jury today in its investigation of expenditures of District Attorney Byron Fitts.

"At this time we have no intention of investigating the actual circumstances of Bern's death or the acts of anyone else in connection with the slaying itself," explained Dr. John P. Buckley, jury foreman. "Our auditors are checking every expenditure of county money ever made by District Attorney Fitts and they now have simply arrived at the Bern case expense entries on his financial account."

Fitts was indicted last week for perjury and the grand jury announced it would continue its investigation into all activities of his office.

Verdict Suicide
After an extensive investigation, during which the platinum-haired widow was questioned by investigators in a hotel suite, authorities announced Bern had committed suicide.

He was found shot to death, Sept. 5, 1932, pistol in hand, lying before a mirror in the home he had purchased for his bride of two months, nearby lay a note:

"Unfortunately, this is the only way to make good the frightful wrong I have done to you and to wipe out my abject humiliation. You understand last night was only a comedy."

A few days later Dorothy Miller, described as Bern's common law wife before his marriage to the screen star, ended her life by leaping from a Sacramento river steamer.

The county grand jury's investigation came as Miss Harlow contemplated divorcing her third husband, Hal Rosson, film cameraman.

Centralia, Ill., Nov. 9—(AP)—Mrs. Alvin Gates of Galesburg, was instantly killed today and her husband and 18-year-old daughter were slightly injured when their automobile crashed into a truck at Richview, 12 miles south of here, at 7:45 A. M. and overturned.

The family was enroute to Meropolis to attend the funeral of Mrs. Gates' father.

BIBLE QUOTED TO FARLEY BY VANDENBERG

While Sen. Borah In- fers Relief Funds Used Politically

Washington, Nov. 9—(AP)—Asserting there was "shameless waste" in distributing relief funds, Senator Borah (R. Ida.) today advocated an investigation by President Roosevelt or Congress.

Returning to the capital from Idaho where he was active in the campaign which gave the Democrats an unprecedented majority in Congress, Borah inferred that relief money in many cases had gone for political purposes.

Meanwhile, Democrats were admonished by Senator Lewis of Illinois, the party whip, to be "conscious of the danger of conflict in the party opinions and avoid the bitter experience of past administration."

Vandenberg Aroused
Aroused by James A. Farley's assertion last night that the Republican party is "through," Senator Vandenberg (R. Mich.) wired The Associated Press from Grand Rapids:

"When Mr. Farley says the Republican party is through, I recommend to him that he read the sixteenth chapter and the eighteenth verse of Proverbs in the Holy Bible.

"The Republican party at Tuesday's polls represents the biggest political minority in American history. I expect it will justify this 'spoke' for many millions of our people by constructive liberalism."

"If we are through with anything, I hope Republicans and the country are both through with Mr. Farley's prostitution of the post-office to partisan politics."

"I hope we all are through with Tammany tactics applied to human relief."

"It is past time for Mr. Farley to resign one or the other of his conflicting jobs. Then we shall be able more effectively to think of our national problem in the coalition terms which the situation requires."

The eighteenth verse of the sixteenth chapter of Proverbs reads: "Pride goeth before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall."

12,000,000 "Dead" Voters
Borah reiterated the Republican party would have to reorganize from top to bottom.

The 12,000,000 popular vote registered by the Republicans, he said, indicated the party was not dead. Asked if he would cooperate with a group in attempting to rebuild, Borah said:

"I can imagine a group I would cooperate with."

Senator Reed (R. Pa.) an anti-New Dealer who lost out in the election, returned to the capital but declined to express his views on reorganization until he had talked with Chairman Fletcher of the National committee.

Borah expressed keen interest in the senate race between Senator Cutting, New Mexico Republican independent, and the Democrat, Representative Dennis Chavez.

"If Cutting has won we will have a jubilee anyway," the Idahoan said.

Federal Judge Held Fraier-Lemke Farm Loan Action Illegal

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 9—(AP)—The Frazer-Lemke amendment to the bankruptcy act is held unconstitutional by Judge Luther B. Way of the United States district court.

"Economic conditions don't make a constitution," he said yesterday, announcing the ruling.

Judge Way found that to prevent a bank, which is allowed by one law to hold a lien against real estate for no longer than five years, from selling mortgage property under foreclosure for another five years, amounts to confiscation of property without due process of law, and violates the fifth amendment to the Constitution.

Cash Relief Held
Illegal by Kerner
Springfield, Ill., Nov. 9—(AP)—Cash relief from state funds is not only illegal but a dangerous practice in the opinion of Attorney General Otto Kerner.

The Illinois Emergency Relief Commission had asked Kerner for an opinion on the legality of replacing in whole or in part the present program with a cash relief one.

Kerner held cash relief was not contemplated by the legislature in enacting the law under which the commission functions.

Nude Body of Chicago Redeemed Found in Her Home; Missed 10 Days
Chicago—(AP)—The nude body of Mrs. Anna Jerome, 63-year-old recluse, was found in her apartment after neighbors reported to police she had been missing ten days. Authorities believed she had died during a heart attack or from convulsions about ten days ago.

MILK PRICE
Due to prevailing unusual conditions it is impractical for the Borden Company to announce in advance the price it will pay for fluid milk direct to the consumer.

Therefore, until further notice, the price for fluid milk will not be delivered and accepted. The price will be published within five (5) days after the period for which the company will have heretofore announced until after said milk is delivered at the price in advance.

The price for milk delivered in the last 15 days of October is $141 per cwt for 4 per cent milk delivered and accepted.

Stoll Kidnaper is Sought in Chicago

Chicago, Nov. 9.—(AP)—The search for Thomas H. Robinson, Jr., accused kidnaper of Mrs. Berry V. Stoll of Louisville, Ky., was continued in Chicago today as the result of two developments.

At the Detective Bureau it was disclosed that at the suggestion of Chief of Detectives Elkin Lewis of Nashville, Tenn., a watch was being kept for the fugitive in the vicinity of Clark and Madison Streets, in the center of the loop.

The Nashville office said he had information that Robinson was in Chicago and was believed to be frequenting a pool hall in that vicinity. Although the pool hall named has been out of business for some time, detectives were assigned to the neighborhood.

The second development, the receipt of an unsigned letter by Robinson's father at Nashville, Tenn., postmarked Chicago and reading, in part, "I have been traveling, but I am here now," resulted in two detectives being assigned to trace the letter.

Brooklyn Voters' Enthusiasm Wanes

Belleville, Ill., Nov. 9.—(AP)—The enthusiasm with which Brooklyn negro village near East St. Louis, went Democratic in Tuesday's election, was a manifest so openly today.

Election judges and clerks have been summoned to the court house here to explain why more ballots were cast than there are registered voters in the town.

Brooklyn boasts 954 voters. The official canvass at the courthouse, however, shows that the Democratic candidate for sheriff of St. Clair county received 742 votes to 291 garnered by his Republican opponent. Ballots totaled 1033, just 79 more than the registration.

The village went Democratic once before, in the 1932 presidential election.

O'Farrell Given Release by Cubs

Chicago, Nov. 9.—(AP)—Bob O'Farrell, brought back from Cincinnati last August to help the catching staff of the National League Cubs, was given unconditional release today.

A decade ago O'Farrell was first string catcher for the Cubs and Leo "Gaby" Hartnett was his understudy. When he came back after managing the Cincinnati Reds he was Hartnett's aid.

Ponies Seek Fifth
The Dixon Ponies are seeking their fifth conference victory in tomorrow's game. They have been going through the regulars for consistent gains all week and are the favorites for this mixup. The lights may also have too high an opinion of themselves.

Rochelle ponies have not won a conference game so far this season, having one of the poorest teams in northern Illinois. They have been a hard luck outfit all year, and are just about due to hit. Will the undefeated purple and white ponies be the unfortunate victims of a Hub uprising? This outlook is not at all impossible, and might be very probable if the Rochelle eleven ever gets the right breaks.

Coaches Worried
Coaches C. B. Lindell and L. E. Sharpe and the squad will start for Rochelle at 11:30. The two Dixon coaches are worried, and not very pleased with the showing that has been made by two Dixon teams this week. Whatever way the score runs, they and the squad will have tried their best to win the game.

With the second and third teams' joyous parade over them all week the heaves are beginning to have some fear of Rochelle, and when the referee's whistle starts the contest they will have respect for Rochelle and the Hub city will—in all probability—show the same feeling toward Dixon.

Dixon fans should go to Rochelle and see this game. Tomorrow is Rochelle's homecoming and their biggest athletic event of the year. Their team is under-rated, but what eleven will not play a better game on a special occasion as this? Follow the team to Rochelle and see Dixon either win or lose two championships.

Do you read Dr. Joseph Fort Newton's daily article in The Telegraph?

Beginning in January, 1935 in response to numerous requests, the librarian allowed all magazines except the current issues to circulate. From that time until September of this year, more than a thousand patrons took advantage of this privilege. Mrs. Scriven reported. Many magazines were mutilated by thoughtless persons eager to clip a new recipe, or perhaps a suggested arrangement of furniture. These imperfect copies had to be replaced before they were sent to the bindery, at a large cost to the library. Because of carelessness and selfish acquisitiveness it was found necessary to allow only those magazines to circulate which are not bound for reference.

The following magazines are purchased by the library and are available to readers at all times:
American Boy, American Magazine, "American Mercury, "Arts and Decoration, "Atlantic Monthly,

Kathleen Healey, daughter of Ben Healey of Milledgeville and Dwight Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs.
Harry Allen of Sterling, were married Saturday at 3 P. M. at the Methodist parsonage in Rock Falls,
Ill. The Rev. R. M. Furnish officiated.

They were attended by Marian rance Thompson on Nov. 22.

SHE ATE ALL-BRAN TWELVE YEARS WITH FINE RESULTS

Delicious Cereal Relieves
Constipation

Read this very enthusiastic letter:
"Something like eleven or twelve
years ago, I began eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. When I started, it was called simply Kellogg's Bran, and I believe it was one of the first products of the kind on the market.

"My friends often laugh at my fondness for ALL-BRAN. It gives me a clean taste in the mouth, and I do not feel satisfied until I have had my ALL-BRAN.

"If the Kellogg Company should
ever stop manufacturing ALL-BRAN,
here is one who would be greatly disappointed."—Miss Amy Person, University Park, Iowa.

Science says that ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to further aid
regularity. Also iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of leafy vegetables. How much safer than taking patent medicines—often harmful. Just eat two tablespoonfuls daily for most types of constipation. For serious cases, try it three times daily. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Sold in the red-and-green package. At all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Mrs. Bradshaw to Talk to Woman's Club on Saturday

Mrs. Frederic H. Bradshaw of Oak Park, Illinois will be the speaker at the meeting of the Dixon Woman's Club, Saturday, November 10th. Mrs. Bradshaw is Past State Chairman of Education of the Illinois Federation of Woman's Clubs. Her subject will be "Experiences of a State Chairman."

This meeting is in charge of the Department of Education of which
Mrs. J. N. Weiss is chairman.

Mrs. Bradshaw is a very active and influential club woman of Chicago and a lecturer of ability.
She is a very forceful member of
The Citizens Save Our Schools
Committee of Chicago. She has compiled much data regarding the Illinois school organization and its antiquated methods of taxation.

The meeting will open promptly at 2:30 at the Christian church and all members are urged to be present.

Birthday Luncheon at Council Bluffs Hotel, Nov. 5

Mrs. George Van Inwegen of Dixon has been enjoying a visit in Council Bluffs, Ia., after a visit in the east and much time at the Century of Progress in Chicago.

The Council Bluffs, Ia., daily, the Nonpareil, printed the following item in regard to Mrs. Van Inwegen's 80th birthday and a luncheon which she gave in honor of that event, and they also published an unusual picture of her. Mrs. Van Inwegen is one of the youngest women we know, despite the figures "80." D'ja ever notice among your friends the young ones and the old ones? Well, think it over and you'll find that many of the really young ones in years have an elderly appearance and some of the older folks have the appearance of eternal youth? They are the young in spirit and in truth, and they carry cheer to all, the vanguard of humanity. There comes to mind a gentleman, (in the truest sense of the word) who by years rates 84
summers—who goes down town
each day and visits his friends

Stole is Back

who is dressed and groomed with the same particular care he used when courting his sweetheart, his wife who has now passed on. He is never so happy as when he finds some piece of work he can and still does with the precision and talent, still at his command. He takes keen interest in civic life, affairs of the nation. But we digress—Such an one is Mrs. Van Inwegen. She was kindly remembered by Dixon
and Oregon friends and relatives and is, as always, very happy. The Nonpareil of Nov. 5th says below
the attractive picture:

Celebrating her eightieth birthday today is Mrs. G. A. Van Inwe-gen shown in the handsome buckskin riding habit she wore while at the Pass Creek dude ranch in northern Wyoming in September.

Mrs. Van Inwegen, whose appearance and activities belie her years, observed the occasion by entertaining at a luncheon today at the Hotel Chieftain, where she is stopping at present.

A birthday cake centered the luncheon table which was arranged in the Corn room. Covers were laid for Mrs. Richard Mayher, Mrs.
George Bussing, Mrs. John N.
Baldwin and Mrs. Arthur Gulou of Omaha, Mesdames George Keelin, Roger Keelin, S. C. Lefferts, Frances Howell, Walter S. Stillman, Henry Van Brunt, H. B. Jennings,

and Miss Nancy Stillman.

Mrs. Van Inwegen was born in Council Bluffs and has spent the Meeting of Wesleyan Missionary Soc.

Over thirty members and friends
attended the enthusiastic meeting
of the Wesleyan Missionary Society
on Tuesday evening at the L. R.
Clingsman home, on Dixon Avenue.

The helpful devotional period
was conducted by C. C. Hintz after which the secretary's minutes were read by Mrs. Leon Garrison
and the treasurer's report by Mrs.
Hintz. Mrs. Henry Leydig then gave, in a most capable manner,
the Mission Study Chapter, stressing many interesting and helpful
facts concerning work in the Foreign Field.

A clever little one-act play was then given by the following: A. I.

Hardy, taking the part of the busy city doctor; Miss Gladys Marth, as his efficient office-girl and Mrs.
Hardy and Miss Helen Marth were typical patients waiting in the reception room. Henry Hubbell was also a waiting patient and appeared to be in the most urgent need of a physician's services. As an en-cure, Mrs. Hardy gave "Aunt's Airplane Ride" and "For Goodness Sake."

A. E. Marth had prepared an unusually entertaining social hour,
after which delicious refreshments
were served by the committee.

The December meeting will be held with Rev. and Mrs. Stansell.

Mrs. Seavey Entertains Social Circle

The Prairieville Social Circle met Wednesday in an all day meeting with Mrs. Albion Seavey, and her daughter, Miss Bess Seavey. The day was ideal for this season of the year and thirty-four members,
four guests and several children
arrived for the pleasant day at Mrs. Seavey home.

At noon everyone enjoyed the appetizing picnic dinner. This was followed by the business meeting
and the entertainment committee took charge after this. Mrs. Hall at this time gave a most interesting educational talk on a trip which she and her husband took through the Holy Land. All enjoyed this talk very much and expressed hearty appreciation to Mrs. Hall.
Then after a short social period all departed to meet in two weeks with Mrs. Hall.

Young Couple Wed in Oregon

Miss Bernice Essex, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Essex of Hamilton township, became the bride of Glenn E. Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. B.
Rogers of East Grove, on Saturday
Oct. 20th. They drove to Oregon Ill., and at high noon on that day
at the parsonage to the St. Paul Lutheran church, were married.
The pastor of the church, Rev. J.
E. Dale, performed the single rit-ceremony. They were unattended.
The bride wore a lovely light blue
"ilk dress. They are making their home for the present with the "bridegroom's parents, where he has been farming for some time, with his father. Both he and his bride are popular and estimable young people with many friends who extended best wishes at this time, for happiness.

Entertains Semper Fidelis S. S. Class

The Semper Fidelis Class of the St. Paul Lutheran church met at the home of Miss Eleanor Jane Fischer on Wednesday evening.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Ruth Bohnstiel. The minutes of the last meeting were read. The election of officers was held, as follows:

President, Eleanor Jane Fischer.
V. President, Velma Kohl.
Sec.-Treas., Hazel Buchanan.
Plans were then made for the Christmas party and meeting was closed with the Lord's Prayer.

Tempting refreshments were enjoyed and the members departed.

THE IMPORT OF THE ELECTION

Nov. 7—Chicago Daily News

Franklin D. Roosevelt has received his mandate.

He was pledged, in 1932, to carry out the principles of the democratic platform. He did not do so. Instead, with the help of his advisers, he improvised the complex of radical policies known as the New Deal. The people for the first time have now voted upon that also, and a majority of them have approved it.

This test gives the president in unmistakable fashion popular approbation in the form of two-thirds majorities in both houses of congress. He is now equipped to work out, with a minimum of congressional opposition, his complete plan for recovery. If he does not achieve the desired result of a restored prosperity, it will be due to the unsoundness of his economics and to the inherent faultiness of his plans—not to lack of legislative support or of executive power.

The reason for this democratic sweep in the congressional election may readily be found in the human instinct perceptible in all nations to turn to personal leadership in a time of distress and confusion, especially if that leadership promises ACTION. This instinct is responsible for the swift rise of dictatorships in Europe and has its counterpart in the United States in diminishing legislative prerogatives and magnifying executive powers. In thus turning to the president, who has shown repeatedly his predilection for action, the American people have not been at all critical of the soundness of the actions taken, or particularly concerned as to where those actions led. It has been sufficient that the action taken did provide for relief of the unemployed and sought by means of government expenditures upon a huge scale to put men back to work.

The next two years will be pregnant for the future of this country. If these years witness the successful issue of the New Deal, implemented and shaped as it will be by a radical congress, the United States will become a vastly different country from what it has ever been in the past. Success of the new economic order would mean, inevitably and inexorably, the emergency of a quasi-socialized state, with government playing an immensely increased and very determinative part in the private lives and businesses and occupations of all of its citizens. It would mean the progressive disappearance of the free competitive system and the substitution of a cooperative system characterized by a planned economy dominated by a centralized authority. Such an America would bear slight resemblance to the America we have always known.

Frankly, we do not believe this will be the outcome. We know, with all of the certainty of the operation of physical laws, that unsound economic projects will fail. We hold fast to the conviction that the remedy for the ills from which we suffer is not to be found in inflation; that the American spirit will not permanently wear a yoke of bureaucracy; that the genius of the American people for initiative and enterprise in their own behalf has not died; that we cannot indefinitely waste the capital resources of the country by spendthrift expenditures out of the federal treasury; that we cannot achieve economic stability without a stabilized currency; that we cannot wall ourselves in against international trade—and prosper.

In the light of the more recent maneuvers of the administration designed to reassure the business and banking interests of the country and to invoke a cooperative spirit in restoring prosperity, it is possible that the president, now assured of an overwhelming majority in congress, may abandon the discredited and deflated NRA experiment; may modify the program of agricultural regimentation by a system of government bounties; may vigorously press negotiations for international stabilization of exchange, and institute plans looking to an ultimately balanced budget. He no longer needs the support of the ultra-radicals among his supporters. His domination of the situation is complete. If he entertains doubts as to the soundness of some of the experiments of the last eighteen months he is now in a perfect position to change his program to one of a more conservative character. All this is possible. Many of his sincere friends believe he will do so. If he does, he will rally to his support many of his former critics.

However, the outcome of the election should not, and will not, affect the devotion and loyalty of those who still believe in the economic and social precepts which 150 years of national life have shown to be valid. The fight for a SOUND recovery will go on. Yesterday's election was but a preliminary engagement.

I am sure Russia has more territory than she will be able to develop for a long time to come.—George C. Hanson, U. S. Consul General at Moscow.

Ball clubs are no bargain today.—Col. Tillinghast Huston, former part owner of New York Yankees.

We know that the good sense of the American people will lead them to reconstruction.—Pope Pius.

We need more money in this country.—Senator Huey Long.

What the News Was Around Dixon in Years Gone By

50 YEARS AGO

The board of supervisors adjourned today.

The ditch for the placing of the sewer pipes is now being dug from the Nachusa House to the river. The pipe is to run from the rear of hotel to Second street, thence to Hennepin avenue and down that street to the outlet. The fall is such as to make a very good drain.

Jack Coffey's horses were left unhitched yesterday evening on the road east of the city and they walked off the high bank above the upper ice houses into the river and were both drowned.

25 YEARS AGO

The Citizens' Association enjoy banquet and smoker at the Macabee hall last evening and discuss Dixon college and county fair plans.

Daily Health Talk

THE HEART IN ANXIETY

Emotional disturbances can produce signs and symptoms in and about the heart which simulate organic heart disease. This has been recognized for a long time. In fact, Jacob M. DaCosta, of Philadelphia, in 1871 coined the classical expression of "irritable heart of soldiers" to describe their cardiac symptoms. Peace, however, has its anxieties no less than war. In consequence, we find the counterpart of the "irritable heart of soldiers" in civilians. This is nowadays described under the terms of neuro-circulatory asthenia.

This condition embraces a host of characteristic cardiac symptoms as palpitation (an awareness of the rapid contractions of the heart), shortness of breath, precordial pain (pain around the heart), discomfort and exhaustion.

Most of the above symptoms are also associated with organic heart disease, but neuro-circulatory asthenia is suspected when these symptoms appear during such customary physical activities and excitements of daily life as previously caused no symptoms or which, in the average person, are without such effects.

Of course, when any of the aforementioned symptoms does appear, the sufferer owes it to himself to be thoroughly examined.

The cause of neuro-circulatory asthenia is chiefly anxiety. Behind the anxiety, however, are certain emotional and psychologic factors which in themselves constitute a medical problem of importance. The fact, however, is that the anxiety produced the cardiac symptoms and the cardiac symptoms fortify and increase the

Oh! Happy Helper cried, "What fun Come, Tinsies, see what Duncy's done. He's taken poor, wee Scouty right across his little knees. A spanking Scouty's getting now. I hope that it won't start a row." The Tinsies then heard Scouty cry, "Oh, stop it, Duncy! Please!" "All right! I guess you've had enough. I do not want to get too tough," said Duncy. "I am satisfied. I've paid you back real well. Now, let that be a lesson, son. At my expense have no more fun." Then Duncy said, "Twas funny when we heard poor Scouty yell."

As Scouty got down to his feet, he said, "Well you've all had a big treat, and now I hope you are all satisfied. I don't mind, goodness knows. The spanking didn't hurt, at all. Right now, of course, wee Duncy is tall, but when he is my size again, I'll punch his funny nose."

"Come, come!" said Happy Helper, "We must all be friendly as can be. Now, promise me, brave Scouty, that you won't do what you said. If you will do that, I will once again make Duncy his right size." And then wee Scouty answered, "All right, Happy Helper, go right ahead."

Before the bunch could realize the lad was back to his own size, but he kept right on shrinking. Goodness, what an awful plight. Real shortly he was just knee-high. He looked around and cried, "Goodbye! I am scared now and I'm brave Scouty." Then he scampered out of sight.

"Run after him," cried Duncy. "Say, we cannot let him get far away." They searched around till Copy said, "He's not inside this place."

"Aw, you are all wrong. I am fooling you," a voice nearby said. "Peek-a-boo!" The Tinsies then saw Duncy standing in a big, round vase.

(Duncy has some fun on a big phonograph record in the next story.)

Living Our Everyday Lives

THE PROFIT MOTIVE

By Dr. Joseph Fort Newton

"Can we do without the profit motive?" a reader asks. "If so, what are we to put in place of it? It looks like taking a wheel out of the watch to make it keep better time. It's all hazy to me."

Exactly, a lot of the new talk is misty, because we are all in a fog. We do not stop to think. As soon as a human trait seems to work disaster, we are ready to suppress it, remove it, destroy it.

But that is childish as when a boy gets mad at a stone because he stubbed his toe on it. The profit motive is not evil in itself; it becomes bad only when we give it the first place in life.

Two types of life are struggling for mastery in the world today, as in all the past. One is the commercial type, the other is the creative type. They use the same set of motives, but in reverse order.

The commercial order is, first get all the wealth you can. Then enjoy such position and power as wealth can give. Finally, co-operate with others to render some useful service to society.

This type of life puts the profit motive first. It develops a possessive kind of man who loves power and who practices a patronizing kind of charity. He may be a truly benevolent citizen.

But the creative way of life is different. It asks us first to render some useful service in society. Then to be ready for the responsibility which such a service brings. And finally, to acquire such profit as the service creates and use it for the common good.

Such a way of living develops the creative type of man, who lives co-operatively, and who holds that the work to be done for society is far more important than any profits to be gained from it.

The two ways of living are mixed in the world, and in each of us. It makes a tension in society and in our own lives. This conflict is the main issue of civilization, and that is the trouble today.

It is a struggle between the profit-motive and the prophet-motive, and the future depends on which wins in the end.

Answers to Previous Questions

As Union troops passed through Baltimore en route to Washington, they were stoned and fired upon by a mob of citizens. Four Union soldiers were killed, 20 injured. In Shrewsbury, Mass., his birthplace, Goddard opened a small watch-making business. Before the illuminating value of petroleum was discovered, the U. S. Chemical Manufacturing Co. manufactured coal oil from coal tar for that purpose.

MT. MORRIS TO DEDICATE WORLD WAR TROPHY SUN.

Will Mark Celebration of Armistice Day in Nearby City

Mount Morris, Ill., Nov. 9.—Formal dedication of a World War field piece in a public ceremony, accompanied by the usual fanfare of speeches and band music, will be the high mark in this community's observance of Armistice Day, Sunday November 11th, which is expected to attract visitors from a wide radius.

The big gun, the only one of its kind in the county, is a 4.7 howitzer, camouflaged in a pattern of greens, yellows, and black as was the wartime custom. It was obtained for Mount Morris by the local post of the American Legion through the personal solicitation of Congressman Leo Allen of Galena.

Program at 3 P. M.
A concrete emplacement has been built at the southeast corner of Kable Square, formerly the campus of Mount Morris College, and the big gun will be wheeled into position here for the dedication ceremonies which begin at 3 P. M. The site is directly across the street from the Kable Inn where a turkey, or steak, dinner with appropriate decorations, and a novel souvenir for each guest, will be served to the scores of out-of-town visitors expected.

The "souvenir" is a beautiful reproduction, suitable for framing, of the local American Legion post's mural painting, "In Flanders Field" by Milledge Newton. The main figure in the original is life-size and was posed by Miss Ethyl McNett of Mount Morris whose blond, madonna-like beauty is recognized in the symbolic figure tenderly brooding over the still white crosses and flaming poppies. The painting has been highly praised and is known in Legion circles far and wide. It was exhibited a year ago in the Kable Inn art galleries. These galleries are showing a new collection of forty-four paintings as an added attraction for the visitors to the Armistice Day gun dedication exercises.

GOOD THOUGHTS

It is vain to gather virtues without humility: for the Spirit of God
delighteth to dwell in the hearts of the humble.

—Erasmus.

Humility is like a tree, whose root when it sets deepest in the earth, rises higher, and spreads
farther, and stands surer, and lasts
longer, and every step of its descent
is like a rib of iron.

—Jeremy Taylor.

Humility is the solid foundation
of all the virtues.

—Confucius.

He hath showed thee, O man,
what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God.

—Micah, 6.

True humility is teachable. It accompanies a quality of thought which is capable of being instructed. He who approaches any important subject in a spirit of humility has placed himself in the receptive attitude of a learner. He has provided himself superior to the suggestion that superficial acquaintance with a subject constitutes a knowledge of it. Humility is always open to right conviction.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
After an inspiring song service
led by Brother Grimsch during which he rendered a beautiful and inspiring solo, Dr. Farrington returned to address an increased audience on Thursday night. He spoke on "Our Conviction," and used as his text, Malachi 3:16-17. He said in part: "The tongue is God's instrument of advertisement and conversation is the result. Conversation can be classified under five heads. What an amazing blessing is God's gift of conversation and our ability to speak about things. Scientists claim that all creatures have a media of communication but man is the flow of language from the tongue. What do we talk most about? Politics and government—yes. God has placed dominion in the human heart.
The Romans ruled the world and the women ruled the Romans. Politics are the greatest sphere of conversation today. The second thing we talk most about is money. Whether we do it directly or indirectly it is one of our greatest themes of conversation. We talk about our friends 'doing better' or 'getting a cut.' What his word covers in our conversation

is amazing. The preacher said
there are three rules about money
(1) make all you can (2) save all you can, (3) give all you can. The good deacon approved the first two but was not so enthusiastic about the last. The third we talk about in clothes. We are anxious to be in style. We wear different clothes for different purposes. Sam Jones attended a dinner one night and his wife asked him what a certain woman wore. "Well," he said, "I saw nothing above the table." Fourth is gossip. What are our newspapers for, but to provide us with the noises of the world. Fifth is God.
How much do we talk about Him.
"They that loved the Lord talked often one to another."

Conversation is heard by the Lord. "The Lord harkened and heard." Not newspaper publicity. I accompanied my father when I was a boy of ten in a ride into the forest down in our plantation in Alabama. My tongue was going at both ends. When we reached a certain hill top, my father said, "Hush, listen!" Then I listened and amid the noises of the forest, I heard the tinkling of cattle. And my father said, "Not mine." We rode on further and stopped again but a new note was heard in the ringing
of the bells. And my father said,
"These are mine." So God knows
His own and listens to them.

Again conversations are recorded by God. He writes it down in His book of remembrance. The Congressional library is supposed to contain a copy of every book printed.
Heaven's library will contain a record of every conversation of His saints. His kingdom work is in our hands and is recorded above.

Every conversationalist is owned by God. "They shall be mine on the day when I shall make up My jewels." We are God's ornaments if we belong to Him. That's what we wear jewelry for—to let others see
it. We prefer to wear it on our fingers rather than our thumbs. I saw a necklace of black pearls once
that was worth a million dollars
but the human is of far more value
than the earth and all its treasures.

Then they are spared. Christ came to earth to spare us from the penalty due to our sins. He paid it in full. God spared not His own son, but He spared us!

Five came forward at the close of the appeal.

Tonight (Friday) Dr. Farrington
will speak on "God's Plan."

This afternoon there will be a

SUNDAY APPOINTMENTS
8:00 A. M.—Divine worship. This early service is no longer an experiment. It has proven its value to have a permanent place in the church program. However, we are not encouraging members to attend
this service if they are able to attend the regular worship at 10:45
and can only attend one service.

The Bible School has been showing signs of continued and substantial growth since the promotion exercises the fore part of October. In connection with the other schools of the city we are convinced that every member be regular every Sunday. Our school opens at 9:30 every Sunday morning with a special number by the orchestra.

Some one has been observing
that the congregation at the regular morning worship at 10:45 has been increasing consistently for the last month or more. We are happy

for the increasing interest. It is the Lord's House for the Lord's people on the Lord's Day. If there is consistent worship and attendance
on the part of any group it should be those who belong and wish to belong to the Lord.

Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock
the Junior Luther Leaguers have their turn. They are always interesting. They conduct their own meetings; sing and pray like big folks. If you are a Junior don't miss this wide-awake crowd.

The time is changed again! The Senior Luther League will meet at 7:00 o'clock instead of 6:30 Sunday night. The young people gave it a fair trial to meet at the earlier
hour and have found it more convenient to meet a half hour later.
Here too we have been having an increasing number of our youth attending; however, there is yet a fair sized group of splendid young people who should make it their regular habit to cooperate and lend their strength and talent to the Senior Luther League.

Week-day Appointments
Monday night is the regular time
for the monthly Workers' Conference. Every officer and teacher of the Bible school of the church will be asked to be present and as many other interested members of the school who will. The conference begins with a picnic supper.
The Superintendent has set his face that a representative group
be present and help plan and carry
through the plans of the school.
Come let us share our joys and divide our problems and build a school both strong and beautiful.

You should have been one to see the number attending the Mid-
week service last Wednesday night.
They were all coming back next Wednesday and more and others are coming, too. It is like it ought to be; like the real and splendid days of interest and loyalty. Please remember Wednesday, 7:30 P. M.

The Ladies Aid have asked that you be reminded of their chicken
and noodle dinner Saturday evening. They begin serving at 5:00 o'- clock. A sumptuous meal, pleasant fellowship.

Watch for our announcements
next week.

Fast Independents Meet Rock Island to Begin Second Half Schedule

Dixon Team to Pro- tect Uncrossed Goal in Sunday Game

Dixon's undefeated and united Independent grid eleven will meet fast company Sunday afternoon when it meets the powerful Rock Island Independents at Rock Island. At stake will be an uncrossed Dixon goal line.

The locals have taken on four rivals successfully, totalling 44 points to their opponents' nothing. The victims have been Byron, 8 to 0; Rockford, 10 to 0; Clinton, 20 to 0; and Clinton in a second game, 6 to 0.

The Rock Island game will mark the entry of Coach Gus Whippleberg's team into the second half of its schedule. On Nov. 18, Freeport will bring a fast and heavy team to the local airport field, and Nov. 25 the Dixon team will collide with the Rock Island Colored All-Stars here. The schedule will close on Thanksgiving Day against the Rock Island Independents here in a return contest.

Team in Good Shape

The squad is reported to be in good shape for the contest Sunday according to Manager Bud Prescott, with the exception of B. Davis, stellar right guard who broke his right ankle in the Rockford game. McDonald, left tackle who tips the beams at 195 pounds, broke a finger in the Clinton game and is expected to play Sunday without difficulty.

Coach Whippleberg will probably take all 21 men of his powerful aggregation to Rock Island, including Rocky Wolfe, all-state tackle, and Windmiller, former all-conference halfback of the Little Nineteen at Monmouth College. "Manders" Miller, whose educated toe booted three field goals in the Clinton game, is expected to see plenty of service against Rock Island if the touchdowns prove difficult to get.

Following is the probable starting lineup and the weight of each man:

McDonald, left tackle, 195.
Appleman, left guard, 190.
Holland, center, 160.
B. Knapp, right guard, 170.
Hasselmann, right tackle, 185.
Potts, right end, 170.
Johnson, quarterback, 165.
Daniels, right half, 170.
Wolford, fullback, 190.
Substitutes include Knute, guard or tackle; Rocky Wolfe, tackle; Jim Kline, halfback; Whitebread, quarterback; Finn, fullback; Witzleb, guard or tackle; Bartholomew, end or half; Windmiller, left half.

Quail, Rabbits, Pheasants Given Official Warning

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 9. (AP)—Pheasants, quail and rabbits take notice!

The hunting season opens tomorrow and a record number of licenses have been issued.

Hunters can bag away at cock pheasants until Nov. 15 but can not legally bag more than two a day. It's open season on quail until Dec. 11. A dozen a day may be shot.

Rabbits should hide out in the bushes until January 31 as each hunter is allowed 15 a day until then.

Ducks, which have found week-ends in Illinois a precarious pastime since the state adopted the rule that they can be shot only on Saturdays and Sundays, might be able to give upland game a few hints on dodging birdshot, as the open season on the web footed wingers started several weeks ago.

Former Dixon Man Rolling Well for Beloit, Wis. Team

From Beloit, Wis., comes the news that Clifford Reisinger, former Dixon resident and prominent in bowling circles, is rolling some excellent games. Reisinger knocked the maples for a 707 count in the Independent league Wednesday evening. He shot games of 213, 244 and 247. His is the first 707 series shot in the league so far this season. He is the captain of the Freeman league which up to date is still high.

Sterling Ready For Final Tilt With Belvidere

Coach Ted Schied's Sterling high school football team engaged in a fast and bruising scrimmage with Morrison high's team Wednesday in an effort to whip the eleven into shape for the final N. C. I. C. conference tussle with Belvidere Saturday afternoon.

The promising work of some of the reserves served notice on some of the regulars that their positions will be none to secure for the final contest. Following the Belvidere game, the squad will prepare for the Turkey Day game with Rock Falls, which team was booked when Dixon decided to abandon the Thanksgiving Day games.

"Make Touchdown You're a Colonel" Says Huey Long

New Orleans, Nov. 9. (AP)—Make a touchdown and become a Colonel.

That's the opportunity before Louisiana State University's football players in their game with the George Washington team at Washington tomorrow.

His stock of adjectives exhausted, Minnesota and Pittsburgh challenged to combat, Senator Long stalked about his hotel suite.

"What can I say about the boys?" he almost yelled. "What can I promise 'em?"

"Make a touchdown of any of them who makes a touchdown," suggested someone.

"That's it," snapped the senator. "That ought to give us more colonels than Kentucky."

Whereupon the "Kingfish" called a secretary and dictated a telegram telling "the boys" of their opportunity.

FANS MAY BE SURPRISED AT GRID RESULTS

Undefeated Teams May Fall By the Wayside

By HERBERT W. BARKER
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

New York, Nov. 9. (AP)—There are a few soft spots in this week's football program, with a heavy intersectional slate to complicate the weekly task gridiron selectors have set for themselves.

From this corner, prospects seem to be about as follows:

Coke-Tulane—Undefeated and untied Tulane brings another very strong array into the north to face Andy Kerr's football magicians, beaten only by Ohio State. This flier on Colgate is based on the Red Raider's tricky attack.

Notre Dame-Navy: On the face of the returns, Navy looks strong enough to protect its perfect record, but playing a hunch, strictly, this ballot goes to Notre Dame.

Nebraska-Pitt: Always 25 per cent more formidable at Lincoln than abroad, Nebraska has had two weeks to get ready for this one. Whether the Cornhuskers can stop Pitt's swivel-hipped backs, however, remains to be seen. A vote for the Panther.

Harvard-Army: The Crimson has shown nothing yet to indicate it can halt Jack Buckler & Co.

Stanford-Washington: The Pacific Coast conference title may hang on this one. Washington's close call with Oregon State was not calculated to raise the Huskies' hopes against Stanford. A nod in Stanford's direction.

Rice Strong

Rice-Arkansas: Rice apparently is one of the country's strongest teams this year and gets the call here despite the Razorback's well-known strength in their own back yard at Fayetteville.

Syracuse-Michigan State: One perfect record will be ruined here and the guess here is that it will be Syracuse's.

Minnesota-Indiana: It would be a football miracle if Minnesota dropped this one.

Yale-Georgia: Georgia aims at its fifth consecutive triumph over Old Eli, something no school ever has achieved. If Yale can strike the same high level of play it reached against Dartmouth, the southerners are in for a tough afternoon. An exceedingly timid ballot for the Elis.

George Washington-Louisiana State: Probably close but Louisiana State is favored.

Purdue-Iowa: The Boilermakers, in full stride now, look too good.

Temple-Carnegie: Pop Warner's Owls to avenge last year's beating by Carnegie.

Ohio State-Chicago: Ohio State, after a brisk battle.

Illinois-Northwestern: Faced with a chance for at least a tie for the Big Ten title, the Illini should not falter here.

Washington State-Idaho: Washington State should still be in the Pacific Coast running after this game.

Alabama-Clemson: Alabama, Auburn-Georgia Tech: Auburn, but it may be nip-and-tuck.

Fordham-West Virginia: Fordham's upset victory over Tennessee makes the Rams favorites for this one.

Columbia-Brown: Brown's hap-

U. S. C. Disappointive

Southern California-California: Two big disappointments collide here. If there's any edge, perhaps it belongs to California.

Oregon-Oregon State: Another close one in prospect. Out of the hat, Oregon.

Tennessee-Mississippi State: Tennessee, comfortably.

Vanderbilt-Sewanee: Likewise Vanderbilt.

Florida-Mississippi: Evenly matched rivals here with Florida perhaps rating a hairline edge.

Texas A. and M.—Southern Methodist: The Aggies have sprung two successive upsets but this looks like one for S. M. U.

Texas-Baylor: Texas.

Michigan-Wisconsin: Depending on the trusty coin, Michigan.

Kansas State-Missouri: More woe for Missouri.

Oklahoma-Iowa State: A shade, perhaps, for Iowa State.

Utah-Colorado University: Stringing along with the champions, Utah, but it probably will be close.

Washington & Lee-Virginia: W. & L.'s Generals.

Princeton-Lehigh: The Tigers in a "breather."

Dartmouth-New Hampshire: Ditto, Dartmouth.

Duke-Lake Forest: Duke's the choice here.

Davidson-North Carolina: And so is North Carolina.

Penn-Penn State: Penn. after a struggle.

Duquesne-Oklahoma A. & M.: Duquesne but the Dukes will need to exercise caution.

Maryland-Virginia Military: Maryland looks good.

Rutgers-LaFayette: Rutgers to win the "middle three" title.

Holy Cross Is Good

Manhattan-Holy Cross: The Crusaders of Holy Cross should get back on the right side of the ledger again.

Tulsa-Centenary: One of the toughest of them all but a vote for Centenary just the same.

Villanova-South Carolina: Not much to choose here but Villanova may have an edge.

Utah Aggies-Colorado Aggies: Utah Aggies should keep their record clean but they may have to shoot the works to do it.

Loyola of New Orleans-Texas Christian: Christian.

Washington & Jefferson-Bucknell: Bucknell looks stronger.

N. Carolina State-Virginia Poly: Poly's battering from South Carolina influences this vote for North Carolina State.

Denver-Drake: The long ride will do Drake no good. A ballot for Denver.

Colorado Teachers-Colorado Mines: The Teachers.

Colorado College-Brigham Young: Brigham Young.

Montana-Montana State: Montana the choice.

Morrison To Launch Cage Season Soon

With only Mt. Morris left on its gridiron schedule, Morrison basketball cagers prepared today to open practice sessions before embarking on a 17-game card for the 1934-35 season.

Five first string men will be missing in the Morrison line-up when the first whistle is blown in the opening game with Prophetstown. They are G. Ritchie, Blodgett, Lang, Knox, and Rich. Barrett, who was a luminary in the center position, and Hook, flashy forward, will return for this season, however. Potter, Parker and Ladd are expected to show enough promise to land regular berths this season.

PRESS CLUB TO FURNISH NEWS OF BOY SCOUTS

Organization of Lee and Ogle Troop Editors Under Way

Arrangements are being made for the forming of a Boy Scout Press club, which will furnish Scout news to newspapers in Lee and Ogle counties, Harold Boltz, Scout field executive said Thursday.

Each troop is being asked to select one Scout who will be Press Club editor for the troop, and the editors chosen from each troop will be responsible for news articles on scouting activities that will appear weekly in the Telegraph and other newspapers. Following the choosing of troop editors a meeting of the Scout Press Club will be held to complete organization plans.

Each Scout troop is urged to send the name of their choice to Mr. Boltz at the Chamber of Commerce headquarters.

Boltz' Suggestion

Mr. Boltz said no plans had been definitely completed but suggested that a boy be selected from each scouting unit by contests and that merit badges or points would be awarded the chosen editor.

From the group selected as editors representing each troop will be appointed an editor representing all the troops in both Lee and Ogle counties. He will be entrusted with the duties of presenting the news of scouting activities to the Evening Press.

Meetings of reporters and editors of the Press Club will be held at least once a month, Mr. Boltz said, and a preliminary meeting will be arranged for the Friday of Thanksgiving weekend.

Hallowe'en Program

Reports from Oregon to the field executive stated that boy and girl Scouts of that community were very successful in sponsoring a Hallowe'en program attended by more than 200 people. Encouraging news from Rochelle indicated the organization of two new Scout troops and two new cub packs in that city, while Davis Junction boy and girl reserves are publishing a newspaper that is being circulated to the community each week. Their assistance informing the press club is expected to be of great benefit.

Troop 70 of Paw Paw have been planning a community wide Scout program and inspirational night.

Program Laid Out

The November program for Lee and Ogle county Boy Scout troops has been laid out in the calendar for 1934-35. Five events have been listed.

Leading the November program is the Boy Scout Training course which will be held for six consecutive weeks on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, in Oregon, Rochelle and Dixon respectively.

Preparation for county rallies and hobby shows will also be made. Troop courts of honor will be held, and troop Christmas toy shows will be formed to prepare for the distribution of cheer to needy children this Christmas.

The proposed Scout Press club will be organized around Thanksgiving.

HARMON NEWS

Joilet will send a vengeful football team to play Rockford high's strong eleven Saturday. The prison city club remembers a 100 to 0 shellacking handed them by the Rockford team of 1920.

In 1930 Rockford threw another bombshell into the confused ranks of the Prisoners, when a 59 to 0 encounter was recorded. Joilet managed to turn the trick on the Rabs in 1916 however, by snatching a close 26 to 20 win in a game featured by offensive play.

Sterling on Wednesday and visited friends.

The ladies of the M. E. church served supper Thursday night in the church basement. A meeting addressed by the Republican candidates was held following the supper.

Mrs. Anthony Keenan and her daughter Miss Margaret, were callers in Dixon Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sommers entertained their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. James Darby of Tampico and their son Lawrence Sommers of Dixon with dinner, at their home Sunday.

Chris Henkle was in Amboy Wednesday on business.

Mrs. Pliny McCarter motored to Polo the latter part of the week

There have been several light frosts during the past few weeks but last Sunday morning was the first real freeze, and all vegetation has been nipped.

The sub-freezing weather and the killing frosts were welcomed by farmers, as it aids in drying corn and makes husking easier. Most farmers are now in their fields picking corn.

Miss Mildred Garland, who is employed at the State Hospital in Dixon, spent Wednesday here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Garland.

Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Dienslake of Walnut entertained a number of guests with dinner Sunday in honor of the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Clinton.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Dienslake, Walnut; Mr. and Mrs. James Davin, Ohio; Mrs. Nicholas Johnson, Ohio; Francis Clinton and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Clinton of this place.

A number from here motored to Amboy on Friday evening and attended the Democratic rally and dance, held in the Opera house. The speakers were the Democratic candidates. Everyone had a fine time.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Long and children were here from Amboy on Sunday and visited at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Long.

At the county wide Democratic rally in Amboy Friday evening, John P. Devine, of Dixon, veteran state Representative, was the principal speaker.
